

SENIORS COMMITTEE

The District of Stewart has received a $15,000 grant to develop a Seniors' Centre in Stewart and wants YOUR input!

The purpose of the committee will be to advise Council on recommendations for:

- a location/facility for the Seniors' Centre and
- use of funds for programming and supplies

Members of the committee may be any age but should be older adults or family members who have an interest in services for seniors.

If you would like to get involved, please contact the District office.

Your name will be added to the contact list and you will be notified when a meeting date is set.
