

One Call Now

when messages matter

The District of Stewart's Emergency Management Program Frequently Updates the One Call Now Registry – We want to make sure your contact information is up to date!

What is One Call Now?

One Call Now is an automated notification system that sends recorded and transcribed messages using phone, text, email and app group messaging.

The District of Stewart mainly uses One Call Now to notify people and provide direction during an emergency event. This service allows every registered number to be reached within minutes.
